SHOCK, HORROR! LIAM HAPPILY POSES FOR A PHOTO

Jingas

Is it really him following you, Liam? The Oscar nominee has built quite a reputation over the years for "asking a passers-by for a photograph" or who has dared venture within five miles of him (but, like, when he's not drinking). Our kid seems to have grown up. There was certainly no lack of the bewaring quality in the moment as well. Here for the most candid photos we've seen in years. Even if the Nikon app can't tell whether he's really him, it's a pretty sure bet we can. NA?
